

Digital health companies

“We connect you with opportunities in the sector of digital health technologies”

If you are an entity providing digital health innovative products, services or solutions interested in extending your footprint, finding new customers and partners to improve Quality of Life and Healthcare, Gatekeeper Community of Interest is for you.

Cloud/Platform service providers	Organisations that allow development teams to build, test, deploy, manage, update, and scale applications faster and more cost-effectively.
AI, Big Data application/digital health solution supplier	Organisations that develop software based on the specific needs of a group of end-users.
Medical devices manufacturer/vendor	Medical device companies develop medical and surgical instruments to diagnose, treat or prevent various medical conditions.
Consumer devices manufacturer/vendor	Organisations that provide “smart” or internet-connected devices to individuals or in their homes.
System integrator/Local deployer and support	Organisations that provide local support and deploy services.
On-line health information and support providers	Organisations that provide information through the network.

