

Healthcare providers and individuals

“We guide you for innovating in digital health area”

If you are an entity providing healthcare services or a person interested in consuming, utilizing, accessing the most innovative healthcare products, services and solutions available in the Gatekeeper ecosystem, the Col is for you.

Patients	A person receiving or registered to receive medical treatment.
Citizens	Someone who lives in a particular town and is entitled to enjoy all the legal rights and privileges granted by a state to the people in a constituency. They are obliged to obey its laws and to fulfil their duties as
Informal caregivers	Also called family caregivers, are people who give care to family or friends usually without payment.
Professional caregivers	People who provide care to those who need supervision or assistance in illness or disability. They may provide the care in the home, in a hospital, or in an institution. Although caregivers include trained medical, nursing, and other health personnel, the concept also refers to members of the clergy, teachers, social workers, fellow patients. The Professional caregiver performs as consumer of technological services.
Health care service providers	A health professional organisation may provide health care treatment and advice based on formal training and experience. The state laws define the scope of practice for medicine, nursing, and a number of allied health professions. Health Care service provider performs as consumer of technological services.
Social care service providers	Organization which its central role is the provision of care and support elderly with needs emerging from independent living, social connection, wellbeing, illness or disability. The Social Care service provider performs as consumer of technological services.
Wellbeing providers	Organization which its central role is the provision of wellbeing, extending beyond traditional wellness programs cultivates healthy habits among populations and improves health outcomes

